

Marie Rose (Perard) Howland

Pendleton

March 17, 1922-June 4, 2012

Marie Rose (Perard) Howland, 90, of Pendleton died on Monday, June 4, 2012, at a local care facility. Graveside services will be conducted Wednesday, June 13 at 2 p.m. at Olney Cemetery in Pendleton.

Marie was born in Pendleton, Oregon, on March 17, 1922, to Paul and Ida (Martin) Perard. She attended high school at St. Joseph Academy in Pendleton.

Marie married Jackson Brown on August 20, 1950, in The Dalles, Oregon. She worked at US Bank in the 1940s. She then moved to La Grande, Oregon, with her husband and worked at a medical clinic. They eventually moved to Carson City, Nevada, where they lived for twenty years. While there, she worked at First Federal Savings and Loan. After retiring in 1983, they moved back to Pendleton. Jack passed away after 54 years of marriage. Marie married Robert Jack Howland in Pendleton, Oregon, on January 18, 2002. They were married for 6 years before he died in 2008.

My mom lived a fulfilling life. She did volunteer work at St. Anthony's Hospital, Roundup Hall of Fame and the Historical Society in Pendleton. She will be missed by all that knew her.

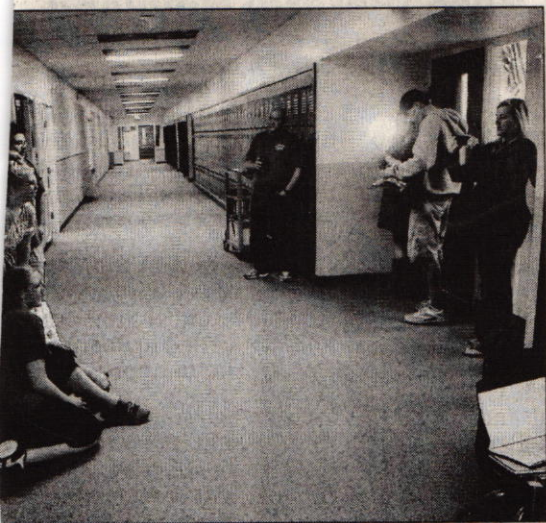

Marie was preceded in death by both her husbands; her parents, Paul and Ida Perard, and her brothers and sisters, Gilbert, Pauline, Laura, Addy, Raoul, Rene' and Johnny.

Howland

She is survived by her daughter, Pamela Terney and her husband Raphael of Pendleton; grandson Kenn Kanter of California; nephews Geoff Parks of Salem, Oregon, and Greg Parks of California; nieces April Waldroop of Salem, Oregon, Lynn Frederickson of Salem, Oregon, and Tammy Jones of Eugene, Oregon; and several great-nieces and -nephews.

Donations may be made to Pendleton Hospice, c/o Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop, 131 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton, OR 97801. Condolences may be made to www.pioneerchapel.com.

Staff photo by E.J. Harris

ound Irrigon science teacher Gary Hunt during on Friday at the Irrigon Junior/Senior High

"I have things from when I was Dirksen tional sc are held earned me true today the distr than Hunt Fellow teacher. Hunt for sionally classroom taught so educatio "It is al with Gary looked fo had so m sense of h why the k One exa ning guardsmen find employment,

The only lim the limits place on me." nes, kayaks, ds. Last sum- d in a mmercial to nyon Games. ws a sleep- ing, doing a smoothie py good-bye hops on his g Portland other Oregon soldiers from the 2nd Battalion, 162nd Infantry in Iraq. Wilson and other wounded warriors returned to Iraq during Operation Proper Exit. To exorcise their demons, the soldiers flew over the places they were injured, toured Saddam Hussein's palace, shot weapons confiscated by insurgents and got rock star treatment from American officers and soldiers. Wilson and his wife, Tonya, tional Ca around his and colleg He grad Blue Moun lege with a drafting an technician he plans to a shing He and to New Yo connect fo members naign Te