

Robert Stanley Sacrison

Pilot Rock
March 2, 2013

Robert Stanley Sacrison, 82, of Pilot Rock died March 2, 2013, of complications from a heart attack in Pendleton, Oregon.

Visitation will be 12 to 5 on Wednesday, March 13, 2013, and from 9 to 5 on Thursday, March 14 at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop. Memorial services will be at 1:00 p.m. Saturday, March 16 at Berean Baptist Church in Pendleton. There will be a reception for family only following the service.

Robert was born in Spokane, Washington, to Clyde and Ada (Webb) Browning. Ada later remarried Jack Sacrison and Jack adopted Robert.

Robert worked for a time at PGG and later moved to Portland, where he worked for CF Freightliner. He had 3 children with his first wife: son Jack and daughters Kathy and Sharon. After divorcing his first wife, he returned to Pilot Rock where he worked for the Umatilla County Sheriff's Dept. and farmed the ranch for his parents.

In 1972, he married Sharon. She brought 3 children to the marriage: sons Rodney and Craig, and daughter Pamela. They would have been married 41 years this year.

Upon his parents' deaths, Robert and Sharon moved to the ranch on Webb Road.

He was a member of the Pendleton Shriners and he enjoyed trap shooting and gold panning.

Robert leaves behind his wife Sharon, his 3 children and 3 stepchildren, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
