Blansett

Robin Blansett was born on October 18, 1952, in Seattle, Washington. She lost her battle with cancer and went home to her Heavenly Father on May 12, 2016, surrounded by family, covered in prayers, and listening to some of her favorite scriptures.

Robin was preceded in death by her parents, Ralph and Jan Cruz. She leaves behind countless family members and friends, including John Blansett, husband of nearly 29 years; siblings David Cruz (Shirley), Jeanette Godlevsky (Gary), Terry Cruz and Ralph Cruz; children Delly Wilson, Micah Blansett, Wade Blansett, Josh Blansett, Shay Hopkins, Heather Montgomery and Crystal Claire; 12 grandchildren; and seven nieces and nephews.

Robin's hobbies included sewing, decorating, redecorating, moving furniture from room to room, soaking up the sunshine, shopping, and spending time with her children and grandchildren. She attended Cornerstone Church and dedicated her life to blessing others, both through her work with DHS (1994-2010) and Columbia Care (2013-2015), and by opening her home and her heart to over 100 foster children who she and John loved and accepted as their own.

Graveside inurnment will be held Saturday, May 21, 2016, at 10:00 a.m. at Olney Cemetery in Pendleton, followed by a service to celebrate Robin's life at 11:00 a.m. at the Free Methodist Church.

Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com. Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of arrangements.
