

Obituary

Alice Augusta Cardwell

Born: April 20, 1916, on the upper McKay Creek, Pendleton, Oregon

Died: March 10, 2012 at a local foster care facility in Pendleton, Oregon at the age of 95 years.

Parents: Walter Paul Reimann and Olive Clara Jones-Reimann.

Alice attended both Gray Eagle County School and Pendleton High School. She obtained a "Degree of Excellence" certificate in The Palmer Method of Business Writing School located in Portland, Oregon, May 8, 1931.

When Alice was 16 years old, she started working as a waitress in the Oregon Café.

Alice married Luther Cardwell on December 23, 1950, at the local Presbyterian Church in Pendleton. They were married 35 years.

She worked at F.W. Woolworth for many years as a cashier.

Alice attended the First Christian Church and also the First Baptist Church of Pendleton.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Walter & Olive Reimann, husband, Luther Cardwell, sisters: June Reimann, Elsie Gyll, Viola Gruver, and Betty Fordice. She is survived by one sister, Beulah Chaney, and one brother, Walter (Bud) Reimann.

Alice is also survived by several nieces and nephews. Nieces include: Brenda Howard, Deanna Hoffman, LaDonna Coulter, Vicki Krumbein, and Valarie Cooley. Nephews include: Gary Gyll, Elmer Wayne Fordice, Douglas Gruver, Bill Reimann, Clint Fordice, and Michael Fordice.

Alice enjoyed riding bicycles and horses in her youth. She also enjoyed shopping for clothes, furniture, and decorative pictures for her home. She was able to live at home until her 92nd birthday. Alice loved to cook baked beans for her church luncheons and white divinity candy for the Christmas holidays. She preferred being called "Alicia" to Alice.

Burns Mortuary of Pendleton, Oregon, is in charge of arrangements with the funeral service being held on Tuesday, March 20, 2012, at 12:00 noon at the Burns Funeral Chapel, Pendleton, Oregon.

