Kimberly Dawn Farrell was born in Portland on Feb. 7, 1961 to Charles and Chesterlea Illingworth Farrell and passed away at her home in Aloha on March 22, 2012 after an extended illness.

She lived in Longview, Wash. until her family moved to Beaver, then they moved to Tillamook in 1963. She graduated from Tillamook High School and from OSU with two major degrees in home economics and hotel restaurant management. She lived in Aloha and was a letter carrier for the U.S. Post Office for 19 years, which she dearly loved.

She was a student of Jan's School of Dance, a Rainbow Girl as Worthy Advisor and a Grand Officer. Her hobbies included gardening, cooking, basket weaving, sewing, her dogs Mattie and Kaylee and cat Calico.

She is survived by her parents; brother Kevin and wife Janel of Salem; brother Colin and wife Kim of Eugene; sisters Cheryl Hollowell and husband Kelly of Tillamook and Charleen Farrell of Prineville; two nephews, Cory Hollowell and Sean Farrell; three neices, Machala Hollowell, Megan Hollowell and Courtney Farrell; great-nephew Michael; three great-nieces, Baby Farell, Rilee and Brooklyn; uncle, Gerald Illingworth and wife Marian of Newport and many friends where she worked and lived.

There will be no services and she will be placed in the family plot in Pendleton on May 19, 2012. Any remembrances may be made to the Shriner's Hospital or United Paws.
