Pilot Rock

April 1, 1945-June 6, 2012

Ted Gilliland, 67, died June 6, 2012, at St. Anthony Hospital. He was born April 1, 1945, in Pendleton, Oregon, to Thomas and Iris B. (Powell) Gilliland. He graduated from Pilot Rock High School in 1963 and from Blue Mountain Community College with an automotive degree in 1964. Ted and Donna C. Lane married on June 27, 1964.

Ted was employed by Pendleton Grain Growers as a parts and hardware manager. In 1979, he started farming on the Pilot Rock family farm that was purchased in 1904 by his great grandfather, Thomas Pence Gilliland. He also loved hunting.

Ted is survived by his wife, Donna; his children and grandchildren, Ann Marie Hardin and her husband Steve, their daughter Sarah; Matthew A. and his children Phoebe, Cooper, Gannon, Heath and Reese; Kimberley M. York and her husband Jim and their children Conner, Dylan and Ryan; his sister and brother-in-law, Ken and Bev Peterson, and cousins, nieces and nephews.

Graveside service will be at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, June 13, 2012, at Olney Cemetery in Pendleton, Oregon. A memorial gathering will follow at the Pilot Rock Community Center.

Contributions in his memory may be made to the Redeemer Episcopal Church, Pendleton, Oregon. Condolences may be sent to www.pioneer-chapel.com.

Arts Center offers drop-in classes

PENDLETON — A pair of free drop-in classes are offered each Saturday at Pendleton Center for the Arts. The sessions include Free for All and Hip & Handmade.

Free for All is held from 9:30-10:15 a.m. and is open to kids up to age 12. Children under 8 must be accompanied by a parent or older pal to assist as staff members head up an art project. Hip & Handmade, which is open to adults, runs from 11 a.m. to noon. The no-pressure get together focuses on a project using recycled materials. Classes are held at 211 and runs through Saturday, Aug. 4. In addition to children's weekly activities, participants are encouraged to keep track of reading time for the program.

For more information contact Mary Finney 541-966-0380.
