Hyde*

June passed away on July 10th, 2010 in Ephrata, Washington, after suffering a stroke.

June was born on January 1st, 1937 in Staples, Minnesota, to Troy Charles Baird and Nettie Mae Pride, both deceased. She graduated from high school in Pendleton, Oregon in 1955. She married Robert G. Hyde, in Clovis, New Mexico on August 25th, 1956.

June also lived in Kennewick, Yakima, Bothell and Renton, Washington before retiring near Ephrata, Washington, among the crop circles.

She had five children, Michael, of Springvale, Utah; Richard, deceased; Robert, of Kalispell, Montana; Mary Putnam, of Rigby, Idaho; and, Jana Christensen, of Ephrata, Washington. She is survived by three brothers: Bill, Jack and Terry Baird of Pendleton, Oregon. Her sister, Tony Jarves, is deceased. She has fifteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

June Spent her life as a wife, mother and grandmother with a few short jobs mixed in. She loved her children and grandchildren dearly and got them together in a family reunion each year. She served many years in the Seattle and Columbia River Temples of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She also served in the church's women's and youth organizations, while raising a family and husband.

She enjoyed music, making flower arrangements, dancing and fixing too much for dinner.

Services will be held at the Ephrata LDS Church building on Thursday, July 15th, at 11:00 a.m.
