Sharon was born in Pendleton on April 11, 1958, to Richard and Carol (Porter) Miller. As a child she loved going to Lincoln beach and visiting her grandparents at their beach cabin. She was raised and educated in Pendleton, graduating from Pendleton High School in 1976. She married Jackson Pickerd June 26, 1976. She worked at Eastern Oregon State Hospital for over twenty years, and continued working as a caregiver for years after EOSH.

Sharon had a big heart. She was a loving mother and grammy. She loved horseback riding. She greatly enjoyed traveling in her motor home, camping, mushroom hunting and any time spent outdoors, especially with her family. She was a skilled gardener and great with farm animals.

She is survived by her husband Jack Pickerd at the home in Pendleton, her daughters Danielle Swanson and Amber Pickerd of Pendleton, grandson Bryson Thompson of Pendleton, sister Pam West & husband Steve of Florida, and nephews Brian & David West of Hermiston.

She was preceded in death by her mother Carol Porter-Galloway, her father Richard Miller, and her brother Bruce Miller.
