James Marcus Rosenberg

Pendleton July 1, 1926-August 28, 2013

James M. Rosenberg, 87, of Pendleton passed away at Lehman Hot Springs on We resday, the 28th of Au-013.

The funeral for James will be held 3 p.m. Saturday, the 31st of August, at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel. A celebration of life will be held at the Let'er Buck Room immediately following the service.

He was born Ju-1, 1926, at lv Bingham Springs to Herman C. and Nora Harvey Rosenberg and was raised on the family homestead north of Pendle-Jim attended Hawthorne and Washington grade schools and graduated in 1944 from Pendleton High School where he played football and ran track. In 2011 Jim was inducted into the Pendleton High School Football Hall of Fame.

Jim served in the United Stata Navy V-5 program frc 944-1945 where he was a Golden Glove boxing champion. On September 27, 1946, he married Delpha M. Peterson in Pendleton, Oregon.

They made their home on the family ranch where they raised wheat, cattle and four children: Mark, Gayle, Chris and Craig.

Jim was a lifelong volunteer and president of the Pendleton Round-Up. He started volunteering at the young age of eleven, helping with the race horses in the arena, and served as a director for eight years. Jim served as president for three years. He was a participant in the rodeo starting in 1948 as a bulldogger and ending the sport when he was elected to the Happy Canyon board in 1960. Jim served as a Happy Canyon director for seven vears before being elected as a director of the Pendleton Round-He was Up. inducted to the Pendleton Round-Up and Happy Canyon Hall of Fame in 1997. Jim served as Grand Marshal of the Westward Ho! Parade in 2002 and again in 2010 for the Round-Up Centennial.

Rosenberg

He served as a director of Pendleton Grain Growers board, the Mustanger Riding Club, member of Peace Lutheran and Faith Lutheran churches and lifetime member of the Elks Club.

Survivors include Mark (Kelli) Rosenberg, Gayle (Steve Sheasly) Rosenberg and Chris (Paula) Rosenberg, all of Pendleton, and Craig Rosenberg of Terrebonne, Oregon; sister June Kamm of Stanfield and sister-in-law Norma Simpson of Pendleton; grandchildren Katie Rosenberg, Casey Rosenberg, James Rosenberg, Shannon Newport, Kristen Kowalski, Justin Elliott, Sarajane Rosenberg Gutierrez and Andrew Rosenberg; and seven greatgrandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife Delpha, sister Mildred Simpson and brother Herman (Sonny) Rosenberg.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Round-Up & Happy Canyon Hall of Fame, P.O. Box 609, Pendleton, OR 97801.

Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.pioneerchapel.com

Staff photo by E.J. Harris reminder of the history of 1.

project to gain the community

the path of the proposed t Park west of Hermiston.

ular maintenance, it always appreciates when community support groups are willing to step up and help out with enhancements.

"If they're going to adopt that stretch of river, that's a big effort for us," Fetter said. "If they can do it a

Continued From 1A

Chang's claims.
"Everything he told us appeared on documents we received from NCIS," Roberts said. According to Marine spe man Capt. Eric Flan 1 at the Pentagon, Chang entered service May 2008 in Charlotte, N.C., and deserted July 9, 2012. Chang was a corporal and never served overseas.

Police also got a search warrant to take DNA from Chang, and rushed the swabs to the Oregon State Police crime lab. That "primary DNA" is a key piece police are looking for to solidify Chang as the person who killed Brandhagen and beat Lange with a pipe.

Chang confirmed his

identity in court Thursday afternoon during arraignment on the initial charges. He appeared via video from the jail before Circuit Court Judge Christopher Brauer at the Umatilla County Courthouse, Pendleton. Umatilla County District Attorney Dan Primus charged Chang with murder for the slowing of Brandhagen and hattempted murder and first-degree assault for the attack on Lange. Primus also charged Chang with trespassing, a misdemeanor.

There is no record of prior arrests for violent primary. Pakents as id-prior arrests for violent crimes, Roberts said, which is why his fingerprints and DNA were not in law enforcement databases. Public defender L. Kent Fisher of Pendleton represented Chang at the hearing and entered not guilty pleas to all counts. Brauer then set Chang's bail at $10,000 in the trespass case and $10 million in the violent crimes case.

Primus said after the