

Obituary

Born: Monday, August 23, 1943

Died: Thursday, August 27, 2015

Glenda (Dyce) Anderson-Sims, died unexpectedly the morning of August 27, 2015 following a renewed battle with cancer.

Glenda was born August 23, 1943 at St. Anthony Hospital in Pendleton, Oregon to Glenn and Joan (Tucker) Anderson. Glenda's parents moved frequently in her early years. She graduated from high school in Elgin, Oregon in 1961. She then attended business school in Baker City, Oregon. After school, she settled in Pendleton where she met and married Ron Patrick Sims. She was a homemaker as well as working as a secretary most recently for Umatilla County Juvenile Department until her retirement.

Service Summary

---

Funeral Service

Location: - Not available -

Glenda loved people and lived life to the fullest in spite of her many health issues through the years. She also enjoyed family and friends on Facebook.

She is survived by her beloved husband, Ron; sons, Glynn and Guy; daughters-in-law, Mickey and Emma; brother, John Anderson; sister, Susie; grandsons, Patrick, Adam, Gregory and her only granddaughter Layla; great-grandson Damion and a great-granddaughter Melody. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews who were close to her heart.

Glenda was preceded in death by her parents and stepfather.

A Graveside service will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, September 2, 2015 at Olney Cemetery.

Send memorial donations in her memory to PAWS or the American Cancer Society in care of Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, 131 SE Byers Ave., Pendleton, OR 97801

