

Obituary

Delma Irene Smith - a longtime resident of Pendleton, died Saturday, August 25, 2012 at St. Anthony Hospital in Pendleton. She was 89 years old. Graveside funeral services will be conducted Wednesday, August 29, 2012, at 2:00 P.M. in the Olney Cemetery, Pendleton, Oregon. Memorial Contributions in her memory may be made to the First United Methodist Church of Pendleton, and may be sent care of Burns Mortuary of Pendleton, P.O. Box 489, Pendleton, Oregon 97801. Sign the online guestbook or send condolences at www.burnsmortuary.com Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Smith was born March 23, 1923 in Heppner, Oregon. She was the daughter of August E. and Galena O. English Miller. As a child she moved with her family to Pendleton. She was raised and educated in Pendleton, and graduated from Pendleton High School. She Married Leo M. Smith on May 4, 1941 in Walla Walla, Washington. The family made their home in Pendleton. While here she and her husband had owned and operated the Tot & Teen Shop. She had also worked at the phone company and later at the first Interstate Bank in Pendleton. She retired in the mid 1980's. She greatly enjoyed Genealogy as well as cooking and reading her many cook books. She also enjoyed traveling. She had visited Europe and had gone on several cruises. She was Past President of the Blue Mountain Genealogy Society, Past Treasurer of the Umatilla County Historical Society and Past Board Trustee of the First United Methodist Church in Pendleton. She is survived by two sons, Thomas L. Smith of San Diego, California, and Doug Smith of Wilsonville, Oregon, two grandsons, Steven Smith and Michael Smith, both of Wilsonville, Oregon, two great-grandchildren, Justin Smith of Hillsboro, Oregon and Laticia Castaneda of Portland, Oregon. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Leo, one sister and one granddaughter.

Service Summary

- Service details not available -

