David Snyder was born July 31, 1977, to Tom and Terri Snyder in Lewiston, Idaho. He graduated from Pendleton High School in 1998. He resided at the Cip House, a group home run by Horizon Project, and worked in the Horizon Project workshop in Pendleton. David enjoyed visiting his parents on the weekends, going swimming, camping, and fishing, and all the group activities provided by Horizon Project and their staff. David was a joyous and wonderful son and brother who will be missed greatly by his parents, sister, and all who knew and worked with him. Many of the staff and clients of Horizon Project were his friends and second family.

David is survived by his parents of Pendleton, sister Heather Padberg and husband Josh of Kennewick, Wash., uncles Jim Terry and wife Judy of Malaga, Wash., Ron Snyder of Pendleton, Jerry Snyder and wife Cathy of Ridgefield, Wash., his aunt Gail Braun and husband Larry of Milton-Freewater, Ore., and Diana Nelson and husband Larry of Walla Walla, Wash., as well as numerous cousins.
