

James E. 'Jim' Trowbridge

Pendleton

January 16, 1937-March 8, 2013

James E. "Jim" Trowbridge, a resident of Pendleton, died Friday, March 8, 2013, at Kadlec Regional Medical Center in Richland, Washington. He was 76 years old.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday, March 14, 2013, at 2:00 p.m. in the Pendleton Vert Auditorium, with burial to follow at Olney Cemetery, Pendleton, Oregon. Contributions in his memory may be directed to the Peace Lutheran Church, and may be sent care of Burns Mortuary of Pendleton, P.O. Box 489, Pendleton, OR 97801. Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com. Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of arrangements.

Jim was born January 16, 1937, in Park Rapids, Minnesota. He was the son of Carl and Alberta (Lund) Trowbridge. As a child he had lived in Park Rapids and Bagley, Minnesota. In 1951 he moved with his family to Pendleton. He attended Pendleton High School, and graduated with the class of 1955. After high school, he enlisted into the United States Navy and served his country until receiving his honorable discharge in 1959.

He then began working for the United States Postal Service. He had worked as a clerk, a carrier and later as a supervisor until his retirement in January of 1992.

He was an active member of the Peace Lutheran Church of Pendleton, as well as the Pendleton Kiwanis Club. He had volunteered his time with St. Anthony Hospice and had also been active with the Meals on Wheels program in Pendleton.

Survivors include his stepson Michael Carlson of Pendleton, Ore.; stepdaughters:

Sandra Carlson Hatt of Pendleton, Ore., Roxanne Abramowitz of Chico, Calif., and Kimberly Molinari of Eugene, Ore.; his brother Roger Trowbridge of Aurora, Minn.; stepbrothers Ross Craven of El Cajon, Calif., and Bob Craven of Encinitas, Calif.; sisters: Delores Wooliscroft of Fosston, Minn., Alvina Rheinheimer of Westfield, Ind., Marjorie Trowbridge of Henderson, Nev., and Lois Tidwell of Fairview, Tenn., and step-sister Gwyne LaPieda of Encinitas, Calif.; nine grandchildren; and many friends. He was preceded in death by his brothers Freddie Trowbridge in 1961 and Merle Trowbridge in 1993, his father Carl Trowbridge in 1968, and his mother Alberta Craven in 1992.
