

Marjorie Elizabeth Jensen Stewart Van Dolah

Pendleton

April 22, 1926-February 6, 2015

Marjorie Elizabeth Jensen Stewart Van Dolah died on Friday, February 6, 2015, at home. Graveside services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Friday, February 13, 2015, at Olney Cemetery in Pendleton.

Marjorie was born on April 22, 1926, in Yankton, Oregon, to Waldemar and Margaret (Tobin) Jensen. She attended first grade in Yankton, second grade at Park Rose in Portland and after her family moved to Pendleton, she attended Hawthorne School until the sixth grade. Her family later moved to Stanfield where she graduated from high school in a class of 23 on May 29, 1945.

She met Norman Stewart Sr. in 1942. He was called to serve in the Army from 1943 to 1945. After the war, Marjorie and Norman were married on January 3, 1946, in a double wedding with his brother Jack Stewart and Betty Prather. They had 41 happy years together and had three children, Shirley Jean Moore, Norman Stewart Jr. and Norman Stewart III. Norman Stewart Sr. died September 28, 1987.

On July 20, 1991, she married George Van Dolah. They were very happily married for 23 years. She was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and was an Avon lady for 31 years.

Van Dolah

She is survived by her husband, George of Pendleton; daughter Shirley Jean Moore; son Norman Stewart III (Dawnette); brother Joseph Daniels of Hawaii; and grandchildren Kayla Stewart, Taylor Stewart, Roy Edward Lane and Shirley Elizabeth Moore. She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Norman Stewart Sr.; son Norman Stewart Jr.; and stepfather John Daniels.

Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.pioneerchapel.com specific indicator.

Kitzhaber said he and Hayes are already cooperating with the Oregon Government Ethics Commission, which is conducting a preliminary civil investigation of complaints against the governor and Hayes.

"Nonetheless, it is increasingly clear that the statutory process established to Kitzhaber wrote in the letter to Rosenblum.

Kitzhaber also wrote, "I deeply regret that this situation has become a distraction from the important work of our state and look forward to your review and its conclusion."

In related news on Monday, Oregon City resident Arin Marcus filed a petition

HERMISTON: The city manager

Continued from 1A

charter using the League of Oregon Cities model charter as a template. Some of the changes include:

1) The charter's language was modernized, replacing male pronouns with gender-neutral ones and outdated terms with more current vocabulary (i.e. "minutes" instead of "journal of proceedings").

2) Absence from 50 percent of council meetings in a calendar year, moving out of the ward the councilor was elected to represent and unauthorized release of executive session material were added to the list of reasons the council can remove a city councilor or mayor from their seat. The council also replaced the words "conviction of a felony" with "conviction of a public offense punishable by loss of liberty" so as to include serious misdemeanors like assault.

3) The city manager is now required to reside in the city.

4) A largely ignored clause requiring city councilors to be a "freeholder upon land" (property owner) was taken out.

5) The new charter states

MILLER: A memorial service

Continued from 1A

tube down a snowy hill and started experiencing severe cramps in his side. Doctors diagnosed inoperable