Feb. 19, 1927-April 18, 2010

PENDLETON — Paralee Weinke, 83, of Pilot Rock died Sunday, April 18, 2010, in Pendleton in the presence of her family.

Recitation of the holy rosary will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, April 22 at Burns Mortuary of Pendleton. Mass of Christian burial will be conducted at 10 a.m. Friday, April 23 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Pendleton. Interment will follow the mass in the Olney Cemetery, Pendleton. Viewing will begin at 1 p.m. Thursday at Burns Mortuary of Pendleton.

Mrs. Weinke was born Feb. 19, 1927, in Monument to Emmett and Nellie (Carter) Cochran. She attended the Carter District School in Long Creek before the family moved to Pendleton. She then attended the St. Joseph Academy, graduating in 1944. She married William Weinke in 1946 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Pendleton.

She worked as a bookkeeper for Comrie Motors, and later for Pendleton Auto Parts. She then was a homemaker and devoted her time and energies to raising her family for many years. After raising her family she began work as a secretary for the Pilot Rock Elementary School. She worked there 28 years until her retirement in the spring of 1996.

Mrs. Weinke is survived by her husband William of Pilot Rock; children Elouise Kirsch of Madras, Don Weinke of Pilot Rock and Janis Weinke of Phoenix, Ariz.; sister LaVelle Province of Portland; and three grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, and three brothers.
